Global Procurement and Sourcing

Reviews the key aspects of a global procurement and sourcing, and the importance of procurement to the firm, its stakeholders and suppliers. Will start with a “proven” model for Strategic Sourcing, then move on to the very important topic of Supplier Management. In Supplier Management, you will learn how to select and evaluate suppliers, implement appropriate contracts, and how to mitigate risks. In Supply Market Analysis, you will learn and understand various tools and techniques to evaluate supply markets. Lastly, the course will cover the very important topic of negotiation. Outside reading will be provided to reinforce your knowledge. In addition, cases studies will be used to bring these learning to life, and assessment will be used to test your overall knowledge.
